

SCIENTISTS FAIL TO FIND THE ROYAL COMPANY ISLANDS

Existence of Land Reported Discovered in Great Southern Ocean 70

Years Ago Doubted.
By the Associated Press.
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Feb. 23.—
The Royal Company Islands, noted on many maps and projections as being situated in the great Southern

Ocean, formerly the Antarctic, at a point south of Australia, cannot be located, and there is some doubt as to whether they ever existed, scientists on the nonmagnetic compass observation ship Carnegie reported here.

The scientists aboard the Carnegie used the name "Great Southern Ocean" for the body of water commonly known as the Antarctic Ocean. They said that in scientific

"The islands, if there were such, were discovered 70 years ago by a British mariner and subsequently included in maps and projections," H. H. Franklin, an engineer on the Carnegie, said. "The Carnegie sailed directly over the location and could not find a trace of land, although a sharp lookout was kept."

"This subantarctic region is continually storm covered. The clouds are thick and the sky is dark, and it is possible that the mariner mistook some of the high table tops for islands."

should be. In fact, the transportation within the city has broken down and service is inadequate and the utility without credit. I propose to see to it that this matter is straightened out. I propose to see to it in so far as it lies within the power of the Mayor that the city has the service that it is entitled to and that the investors receive a fair return and their just rights, and let me say here and now, I believe in demanding that every obligation from utilities be fulfilled, and I also believe that they be allowed to enjoy the full measure of

"I want to build up a general credit feeling toward the City of St. Louis such that capital will be looking to St. Louis for investment, and mark you, capital invested in these enterprises is here to stay and should not be destroyed. The more we can ob-

"I believe that all of these subjects require an equitable constructive and uplifting attitude toward them. These very briefly are some of the things that I will endeavor to do.

"I would say to you that the brightest page in American history was on that day when the men went to the camps, Presbyterian, Catholic, Methodist, Mason, Knight of Columbus, Odd Fellow, Jew and Gentile, all nations, all creeds following the flag side by side; they sailed the ocean side by side; they marched on the fields of France side by side; they fought the battle of freedom for you and me and each and every one of us, side by side, and lay buried on a foreign shore side by side.

that flag has come back to us washed in the blood of those martyrs, it is ever more radiant and beautiful. There, there was the soul of America and I say to you I pledge myself to unite every element in our city, rich or poor, high or low, and send forward the soul of St. Louis on its march of progress to its future greatness and you, oh, women, God bless you, with your votes will lay the cornerstone in this new era in the development of our beloved city and our

FOREST PARK ELECTRIC LIGHTS TURNED ON

Mayor Officiates in Storm—937
New Lamps Replace Old
Gasoline Lights.

The new electric lights in Forest Park were turned on last night, but most people evidently had resolved to wait for better weather to see them. The 937 new lamps replace the old gasoline lights.

It was a Spartan band of about 100 persons who gathered on the east projection of the brow of Art Hill at 8 o'clock. A cutting wind whistled through the adjacent trees, penetrating overcoats and shawls. While a band played a preliminary selection, Mayor Kiel did some "tolling" on the speakers' stand to keep his feet warm.

The old lights had been turned off, and the darkened park slumbered at the foot of the hill like a great, black lake. This effect was emphasized by the trailing of floodlights from the Art Museum upon the flags floating from the tall masts at the foot of the hill, so that the illuminated banners waved over a sea of inky darkness.

The ceremonies were brief. Circuit Judge Landwehr introduced the Mayor with the whimsical observation that he considered the installation of the lights as "the brightest and most shining achievement of Mayor Kiel's administration." The Mayor himself said that it was the people's reward for voting for the item in the bond issue to provide them.

Mayor Throws Switch.
Suggesting that the crowd turn to watch the spectacle, the Mayor threw a switch that had been installed on the stand. The time was 8:30 o'clock. For a moment nothing happened, then the bosom of the broad black expanse below was sprinkled near and far with softly glowing points. The impression was one of gentle illumination, rather than flashing brilliance.

The diminutive gathering sent up a brave cheer; the band played "The Star Spangled Banner," and the assembled guests made a break for the warm comfort of the Art Museum, which was kept open for the occasion.

Ninety miles of underground cable were laid in the park for the new lights. While they are not greatly brighter than the old ones, the standards are higher, and the light is more effective. The new ones are a vast improvement in the matter of looks, and cost less than half as much to maintain. The city is installing $199 of them, including those in the park, in outlying districts.

Hangs Himself in Shed.

The body of Fred G. Mueller, 66 years old, a brewery worker, of 3416 Tennessee avenue, was found by his wife, Amelia, hanging from a raft in the shed in the rear of his home at noon yesterday. Mrs. Mueller told the police her husband had been out of work and had complained of headaches.

AFTER ANY ILLNESS THE BLOOD IS WEAK

If You Get Well Slowly, Try Building Up Your Blood

IT'S BLOOD THAT FEEDS THE BODY

Pepto-Mangan Creates Rich, Red Blood, Changes Pale Complexions to Bloom of Health

A serious illness, even a cold that is hard to shake off, can reduce the blood to a weak, watery condition which keeps the normal strength and vigor from coming back.

This poor physical condition brings on a helpless, discouraged mental condition which rich, red blood can restore.

Pure blood should be rich in iron, which Nature supplies to some extent in food. But often through faulty digestion or improper diet you don't get the needed iron, and your blood, on which your health depends, grows weaker and weaker.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan enriches the blood, increases the red blood cells and supplies the ingredients that bring a quick response in vigor, vitality, and fine color.

Physicians recommend Gude's Pepto-Mangan. When you order, be sure the word "Gude's" is on the package. Without "Gude's" it is not Pepto-Mangan. Furnished in both liquid and tablet form. For sale by all druggists.

AUTO HITS WATCHMAN AT GRADE CROSSING

Driver, 47 Years Old, Says Rain on Windshield Prevented His Seeing That Gates Were Down.

James P. Miller, 47 years old, of 5752 Maple avenue, watchman at the crossing of the Washburn Railroad at the Delmar boulevard station, was injured seriously at 7 p. m. yesterday when struck by an automobile driven by Donald P. Robertson, 17 years old, of 821 Belt avenue, a student, as he was fixing a signal lamp on the crossing gates. At the city hospital, Miller was said to have suffered a fractured right leg, internal hurts and injuries to the right hip.

Robertson told the police he was driving east in Delmar boulevard, and failed to see the gates were lowered because of rain on the windshield. He was within a few feet of Miller, he said, before he saw him. He said he tried to stop, but the machine skidded, the rear end striking Miller.

Mrs. Ruth Turner, 47, of Clarksville, Tenn., a buyer stopping at the Marquette Hotel, suffered a fractured skull and right arm and internal injuries at 7 p. m. when struck by an automobile driven by Charles H. James, 4523 Olive street, a salesman, at Eighteenth and Locust streets. Mrs. Turner, with Mrs. Ruth Rhinehardt and Harry Gerhart, also of Clarksville, was crossing from the north to the south side of Locust street. James said his vision was obscured by rain on the windshield and he did not see the group until the auto was within a few feet of them.

Samuel Guanine, 6, of 1525 Cooper street, suffered scalp wounds and cuts and bruises at noon when struck by an automobile driven by Paul Foster Ward, of 5356 Goodfellow place and Albert Schechman, 2542 Arlington avenue were cut and bruised on the head and face when riding and driven by Albert Vetter, 5356 Goodfellow place struck a traffic standard at King's highway and Page boulevard when he swerved suddenly to avoid another automobile.

John Konopka, of 1425 North Twentieth street; Mrs. Ben Amien and her 8-month-old baby, Marie, of 231 Louisa avenue, St. Louis County; Mrs. Elizabeth Drecker, St. Louis County, and George Cass of 1412 St. Ange avenue, were thrown from an automobile driven by Konopka when it struck a pile of earth in the street at Jefferson and Gravois avenues and swerving, was struck by a Bellefontaine car and overturned. The occupants were cut and bruised. The pile of earth, the police reported, was the result of repairs being made by the United Railways Co. and had signal lights on it.

HOUSE VOTES FOR $1,400,000 TO BREAK UP LIQUOR TRAFFIC

In Bitter Debate, Drys Charging Attempt to Break Down Enforcement Machinery.
By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—Friends of prohibition enforcement in the House won another fight yesterday to keep liquor beyond the reach of those not permitted to handle or drink it.

After a flare up that threw the House into bitter debate toward the close of a peaceful holiday session, the prohibition forces pulled followers and put through a motion directing conference on the deficiency bill to give the Government $1,400,- 000 to break up the liquor traffic from now until July 1. It was the top figure discussed.

Before the vote was taken, however, charges flew thick. Chairman Good of the Appropriations Committee declared enforcement agents openly were winking at the law's violation. Representative Voisard, author of the act, came back with the charge that attempt was being made to break down the machinery of enforcement through failure to provide adequate appropriations.

American Becomes King's Counsel.
By the Associated Press.
LONDON, Feb. 22.—Robert Newton Crane, an international lawyer of long residence in London, and a member of the English bar since 1894, is the first American to become a King's Counsel. Crane was born in New Jersey in 1848. He was educated at Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn.

ACID IN STOMACH SOURS THE FOOD

Says Excess of Hydrochloric
Acid is Cause of Indigestion.

A well-known authority states that stomach trouble and indigestion are nearly always due to acidity—acid stomach—and not, as most folks believe, from a lack of digestive juices.
It states that an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach retards digestion and starts food fermentation, then our meals sour like garbage in a can, forming world fluids and gases which irritate the stomach like a toy balloon. We then get that heavy, lumpy feeling in the chest, we eructate sour food, belch gas or have heartburn, flatulence, water-brash or nausea.

He tells us to lay aside all digestive aids and instead, get from any pharmacy four drabs of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast while it is effervescent, and continue to continue this for one week. While relief follows the first dose, it is important to neutralize the acidity, remove the gas making mass, stand the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and sodium phosphate. This harmless salts is used by thousands of people for stomach trouble with excellent results.

Summer Camp Death Mystery Is Solved by Rupert Hughes

Readers Follow With Excited Interest Noted
Author's Development of Tragic Case of Clelia
Blakeney, Found Frozen in Lake at Mountain Resort; Tells Dramatic Story in Great Novel,
"Beauty." Now Running in The Red Book Magazine.

The deep seclusion of the Adirondack forests is giving up one of the strangest and most thrilling tragic stories of the century. Clelia Blakeney, society favorite and amateur actress of exceptional talent, celebrated for beauty and a native wit, is dead in singular and puzzling circumstances. The most painstaking search long failed to reveal trace of any clue to the cause of death.

Miss Blakeney's dead body, clad only in a silk night dress, and her hair loose and flying as if she were running in the wind, was found in all its natural loveliness imprisoned in the ice close by the shore of one of much-frequented mountain lakes.

Living beneath the frozen surface of the lake, her face turned to the sky and her hands folded upon her bosom, with only a small wound upon her brow to suggest possible murder, the girl's body was discovered by a rich young Texas millionaire named Larrick, one of the guests at the camp.

Blizzard Hinder Search. Between the time of Miss Blakeney's strange disappearance and the startling discovery of her body locked in the ice, a blizzard raged through the mountains. A desperate search was begun for her as soon as she was missed, but the ferocity of the winter storm greatly hindered the quest of those who beat the mountain trails and on snowshoes carried the search to guests at the camp.

The Texas Larrick, nearly lost to life in struggling through the blinding blizzard and was himself saved from being lost by Miss Nancy Fleet of New York, who is famous as an outdoors-woman. After repeated failure to find any trace of Miss Blakeney in the mountains, Larrick turned to the lake. At the first visit it yielded no trace of the missing girl.

Things again at a point where the wind sweeping around a point of land, had swept away the snow that hid the body. Larrick, who was near the shore, he came unexpectedly upon the ghastly vision of the missing girl. Days had passed since her disappearance, and the figure was encased as solidly in the clear ice as a gem in its matrix.

Body in Ice Casket. Finding it impossible to chop the ice away from the figure which it imprisoned, a luck, oblong block was sawed from the lake's surface and conveyed to the camp, where it was left in the low temperature outdoors. Learning against the rough walls of a huge log cabin, this ghastly memento of a mysterious tragedy presented a picture probably never before seen.

The dead girl appeared as one asleep in a glass case. Her silken nightgown seemed to ripple about her figure, clearly outlining it. Her all its frail beauty, yet never suggesting that it was the body of a dead woman. Through the ice, the face was framed and there well might perfectly transparent, the small wound on the forehead could be examined, but it told nothing except to the speculative mind.

The snow-filled trails and the banked and drifted premises have yielded not the faintest hint as to what manner, foul or accidental, Miss Blakeney came to her death. It is accepted as a fact that she died on the first day of the storm, probably early in the morning before it came roaring down out of the north to blanket the mountains.

Not Seen on Tragic Day. Miss Blakeney was not seen on the day of her disappearance, so far as is known. She was one of a numerous party which, because of the mild winter, had lingered at the remote camp long past the usual time of departure for New York and its urban excites. Besides Miss Blakeney, Mrs. Roanoke, the owner of the camp and hostess of the party; Larrick, a young Texan, whose domestic unhappiness has long been a topic of sympathetic discourse with his set; Burnley, the painter of winter landscapes; and a sculptor, Miss Fleet, a young woman, who was responsible for the presence of Larrick and the various guides, chauffeurs and other servants usually found in a pretentious mountain camp.

All these, except two or three employees who were to be left to care for the camp, were prepared to return to New York on the day of Miss Blakeney's disappearance, who having arrived of the approaching storm, the camp fifteen miles from the railroad, is easily accessible in the summer and autumn, but when heavy snow falls it is cut off from civilization.

Maid Discovers Disappearance. On the morning of the intended breaking up of camp Miss Blakeney's maid carried breakfast to the noted beauty's room. It was there that her disappearance was discovered. Miss Blakeney's clothes were in the room, just as she had left them, the maid said, when she undressed the night before. Her pet dog was in his usual place, sleeping as a silk skirt.

A wide-open window, through which blew a winter wind to chill the room beyond comfort for sleeping, represented the room's only change from its usual condition. However, it did not at first cause any alarm. Word of Miss Blakeney's disappearance soon spread to all the cabins occupied by the guests. Few of them took her absence seriously. They knew her to be of a mischievous nature and thought she was hiding for the sensation she might be able to make at a time when all were hurrying to get to the railroad before the storm could block the way.

Some knew she preferred staying in the camp to returning to the city, and expressed the belief she had concealed herself to compel the others to go on without her. She would not be entirely without her companionship, pleasant companionship were she to remain behind.

Larrick Man of Courage. Others explained Miss Blakeney's absence by presuming that, for a frank, she had driven to the station one of the trucks carrying the baggage, so that she had walked down the road and would await being overtaken by the automobile in which the party would travel the fifteen miles out of the wilderness.

BILL TO INCREASE POLICE SALARIES PASSED BY HOUSE

Little Discussion on Floor of Measure That Adds to Pay of Every Member of Department Except the Chief.

By a Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Feb. 23.—The St. Louis police salary bill, carrying increases totaling about $350,000 a year was passed by the House yesterday afternoon, 115 to 5. There was little discussion on the floor, only two brief speeches being made by St. Louis Representatives in behalf of the measure and none against it.

The bill as passed would increase the salary of every member of the police department from turnkeys up except the chief, whose salary remains at $2,000 a year. The bill now goes to the Senate. The increases provided for are as follows: Assistant chief from $3,500 to $4,000, chief of detectives from $2,500 to $3,000, assistant chief of detectives from $2,100 to $2,400, secretary to the Police Board from $2,000 to $2,100, inspectors from $2,500 to $2,800, secretary to the chief from $2,000 to $2,200, superintendent of detention system from $2,100 to $2,400, captains from $2,400 to $2,700, lieutenants from $2,100 to $2,400, sergeants from $1,800 to $2,000, patrolmen from $1,500 to $1,700, probationary patrolmen from $1,200 to $1,350, turnkeys from $1,100 to $1,250.

The bill was introduced in the House by Representatives Bittner, Caulfield and Davidson. Bittner called the bill up and said it applied only to St. Louis and that all differences of opinion between St. Louisans, legislators and others had been adjusted and that the bill as presented for passage was the result of compromise. A lobby has been maintained here by the Police Department in support of the bill most of the time it has been under discussion.

Part of the time Assistant Chief Gilaspay has been here, though Lieut. James Moran apparently has been in charge of the lobby, added early in the session by other members of the department, one for each grade. A dinner was given for members of the St. Louis legislative delegation and officers of the House and Senate and the committee involved, by the police, the expenses of which were defrayed out of the fund raised by assessing each member of the department $1.

When the bill first was brought up in the Legislature opposition seemed imminent from rural members, but when an organized protest from St. Louis was heard those members decided it was none of their business to interfere in the domestic problems of St. Louis, hence when the bill came up for passage there was no opposition aside from five scattering votes.

MAN AND SON, 11, ARE BEATEN AND ROBBED IN GARAGE

Proprietor of Shoe Repair Shop and Boy Who Had Taken Receipts Home, Suffer Fractured Skulls.

Manuel Meyer, 32 years old, of 2733 Park avenue, proprietor of a shoe repair shop at 604 Pine street, and his son, Bernard, 11 years old, are at the St. Louis Baptist Hospital with fractured skulls, suffered when attacked by robbers as they entered a garage at 2731 Park avenue, rented by Meyer, at 10:30 o'clock last night. At the hospital today it was said the boy's condition was critical.

An automobile wrench with which they were beaten was found on the garage floor. Meyer drove from his shop to his home, carrying with him his day's receipts. He left all but $2 at home and the boy rode with him to the garage in an alley in the same block.

After the attack the boy said he got out to unlock the door and found it open. Before he could warn his father he was dragged into the garage and struck over the head. Meyer drove his machine in and had alighted when he also was struck on the head and knocked unconscious. The boy recovered consciousness and his screams attracted neighbors, who called policemen. Meyer was robbed of $2.

After performing a series of acrobatic feats to gain entrance to the pawn shop of Henry Gallant, 1416-18 Market street, last night, robbers took several suit cases which they filled with silks, jewelry and other merchandise. The total value of which was estimated today by Gallant at more than $1000. Investigation showed, the police said, that the burglars had climbed a rear stairway to the second floor of a hotel at 1424 Market. From a window of the hotel they climbed to the adjoining roof of a picture theater, dropped 10 feet to the roof of a shed in the rear of Gallant's, and stood there to wait the bars away from a second-story window of the store, by which they entered.

Burglars Blow Safe. Burglars last night blew the door off the safe in the oil filling station of the Standard Oil Co. at 4600 Easton avenue and stole approximately $800 in cash, and checks totaling $800.

Joseph Zryd, 60 years old, of 503 North Compton avenue, was shot in the left hand at Twenty-third street and Franklin avenue at 5:45 o'clock last night when he fought off two highwaymen with his umbrella. Reports Robbery in Taxicab. Robert Burns and his wife, stopping at the Elmo Hotel, East St. Louis, reported that about 7:15 o'clock last night a taxicab in which they were riding at Seventh and Gratiot streets, near the Free Bridge approach, was held up by a man who took $74 and a tie pin from Burns. They said the man did not search Mrs. Burns and the taxicab driver and after the robbery he got into the front seat with the driver, who then drove away, leaving Burns and his wife standing in the street.

Private Watchman Beck and Patrolman Brown of Central District climbed a fire escape and captured three men on the roof of a three-story building at 7 North Third street, occupied by Teuscher & Co., wholesale liquor dealers, at 7:30 o'clock last night.

Burglars who entered the homes of Frank Staunbach, 5748 Cote Brilliante avenue, and George Davis, 1493 North Broadway, last night stole jewelry and clothing valued at about $600.

ESSEN ELECTION BILL TO BE REPORTED BY HOUSE COMMITTEE

Measure Provides for Bipartisan Board of Two Members in St. Louis County.

JEFFERSON CITY, Feb. 23.—The Essen bill to govern elections in St. Louis County was approved by the House Elections Committee last night after a hearing in which the differences of the Gardner and Essen factions of the Republican party in the county were aired.

The bill provides for a board of two election commissioners, one Republican and one Democrat, to direct the registrations, primaries and elections in St. Louis County. This bill is in effect an amendment to the Gardner bill, introduced by Representative Heege in conjunction with Representative Stevens, which had been referred to the committee after Stevens offered amendments.

Stevens told the committee that Heege represented the minority faction of the Republican party in St. Louis County, while he is a member of the majority, and urged approval of the Essen bill. Heege declared he represented "the common people." Essen has been here for two days. The Essen bill has been introduced in the Senate by Senator Ralph.

AMENDMENTS TO COMPENSATION BILL ADOPTED IN HOUSE

One Strikes Out Emergency Clause and Another Provides Only Service May Can Serve on Commission

LABOR WOULD KILL
SENATE MEASURE

Federation Forces Ask That It Be Put on Informal Calendar and May Take Same Action in House.

By a Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, Feb. 22.—House this afternoon, by a vote of 75 to 25, adopted an amendment to the proposed compromise workmen's compensation bill, which would establish practically mandatory State insurance against industrial accidents. Private conversation under this amendment, would be prohibited from furnishing such evidence. Representative Elmer Dent County, known as an opponent of compensation measures, offered the amendment.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Feb. 22.—A campaign of amendments against the compromise workmen's compensation bill, advocated by the Associated Industries and the Missouri Federation of Labor, got under way today when the measure was taken up in the House, on special order. Representative Turbett of Cole County, its sponsor, the bill was amended in the Senate on emergency yesterday.

Representative Manning of Lewis introduced one amendment and spoke in behalf of most of others. Manning, in urging that the salary of the secretary of the board of Compensation Commissioners be fixed at $2400, instead of $3500, the compromise bill provided. He also from rural Representative favoring the measure. Representative Ferguson of Ripley County, announced that they would resist his sudden desire to practice of law when the rest of the St. Louis salary increase bill comes up for passage. A substitute amendment by Representative Bates of Shaw County prevailed, fixing the salary at $2400.

Emergency Clause Killed.—Through adoption of an amendment by Representative Elmer Dent County, the emergency clause was stricken from the bill, and the measure will be taken up by the House by Representative Elmer Dent County provided that, but soldiers, sailors and marines, members of the commission, the next four years. Another amendment by Representative O'Donnell of Kansas City, also the employer from compensation bill in the event an employee comes injured through industrial or other like cause, the amendment by Representative Elmer Dent County, the measure would power the superintendent of the board of Compensation Commissioners to determine the classification of employees for compensation, well as the rates paid for injury.

Elmer, in urging the death of emergency clause, asserted that recent running something down throats of the people of the State which they did not want. He omitted under questioning that was opposed to a compensation of any kind. Turbett, favoring emergency clause, said only classes of persons are behind the fight being made on emergency clause, damage suit lawyers and life insurance companies. Advocates of the compromise indicated that if the emergency clause measure went much further, they would demand that the bill be placed back on the calendar as they did in the Senate.

Representatives of the Missouri Federation of Labor, dissatisfied with the workmen's compensation bill, suggested by the Senate yesterday afternoon, today asked Senator Turbett who handled the measure to take it on the informal calendar for purpose of killing it. They said they would prefer to have no compensation legislation than the bill as it stood.

Doubt was raised today as to the accuracy of the record showing defeat of the State insurance bill. The vote announced was 15 for, 17 against, and 17 against. The record shows that Senator Turbett of Kansas County was one of those who voted for it. The amendment the defeat of State insurance bill would not be for consideration of the vote unless year are: Dr. William Doughty of Cincinnati, president; Dr. D. Y. Klett of Louisville, first vice president; Dr. Edward Blaine of Chicago, second vice president, and Dr. A. F. Tyler of Omaha, secretary-treasurer.

The society, which closed its two-day session at Hotel Statler yesterday, will hold its meeting next year at Chicago.

containing a large number of Deputy Sheriffs, was armed.

The organizers were also accused of having revolvers, and from the statements of a number of witnesses, who declared the guns were thrown from the windows of the coach in which the organizers were riding, as well as found in the toilet, this appears to have been true.

The organizers did not alight from their train. They were informed by one of the Deputy Sheriffs, they said, that they "better not let their feet touch dirt in the country or it would be all off with them."

Deputies Take Stand.
To combat the testimony in regard to the activities of the Deputy Sheriffs, three deputies, D. L. Mitchell and Pat Murphy, were called to appear before the commission. They either denied in toto the incidents previously sworn to or explained them in such a way as to throw responsibility upon others, usually the miners giving testimony.

The burden of their charges against the miners was that several of them had been carrying guns contrary to law, and that this explained any interference with them by the Deputy Sheriffs. They denied that they had arrested anyone without a warrant, and said that they had on no occasion assaulted any of those who testified.

One of the deputies, D. L. Mitchell, admitted that he found an admitted organizer at the home of a miner. He said:

"I would be picked up by the superintendent of the property, and if he deemed him unworthy and objected to him being there, and wanted him ordered off the property, I would order him off."

On the whole, it is abundantly evident that the Deputy Sheriffs who receive their salaries from the Logan County coal operators are a great asset to those operators in keeping the union out of the county and out of their mines.

We saw yesterday that there is a law which makes this arrangement apparently illegal, and makes the miners who sympathize with the union bitterly resent it as an improper control of local officials.

Is it not time for the West Virginia Legislature, now in session, to bring to an effective end this sort of privately-owned local government?

HYDE'S SCHOOL BOARD BILL LIKELY TO BE AMENDED

out a plan to which no objection would be offered, and none of the committee appearing to have much interest in the bill. Senator Robinson wasted little time in explaining it.

The delegations, however, presented their objections. Former Senator F. M. McDowell and Judge John S. Farrington of the Springfield Circuit of Appeals appeared for the Springfield Institution, and Dr. W. S. Deamont, president of the Cape Girardeau teachers' college, appeared for that institution.

Their objections, summed up, were that one board of control for all institutions, having no local pride or local interest, would destroy competition and initiative in the institutions, and that as a result much of the progress of the schools would be stopped, and that the expense would be much greater than under the present system.

Board Chairman Opposed.
Speakers declared that they were unable to see the necessity of a $75000 man for head of the board, unless it was the intention of removing all presidents of the schools, which they said would be fatal. The overhead expense of one board for all institutions they placed at from $20,000 to $30,000 a year without any benefit accruing to the schools.

Dr. Deamont cited instances of other states which had adopted centralized control of teachers' colleges, and said the result had been unsatisfactory in most instances.

Prof. J. D. Delph of the Springfield School, announcing that in politics he was a Republican, said that centralized control in Oklahoma had meant that when the State administration changed for political reasons teachers of the same political faith as the administration were put in their places. He said the tendency of centralized control would be toward injecting politics into teachers' colleges to a greater degree than under the present system.

Other Objections to Bill.
Dr. Deamont also said the tendency would be to specialize in particular subjects at particular schools, forcing students to attend several schools, many of them at long distances from their homes, to take the full teachers' course. He said this would discourage attendance and would discourage education.

Statistics, he said, showed that more than 50 per cent of the attendance at all educational institutions, even such as Harvard, was of students residing within 100 miles of the school.

The committee adjourned without passing on the bill, evidently awaiting an announcement from the Governor as to the result of the conference with Dr. Hill.

COLBY CONSIDERS KILLING OF LANGDON CLOSED INCIDENT

Secretary Says Japan's Prompt Action "Undoubtedly Will Be Received With Appreciation in U. S."

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—The incident of the fatal shooting by a Japanese sentry of Lieut. W. H. Langdon, an American naval officer at Vladivostok last month, is regarded by officials today as definitely closed, except for the matter of reparations, as a result of the action of the Japanese Government in punishing those responsible for the tragedy and its renewed expressions of regret, as conveyed in its reply to the recent American note.

This view was expressed by Secretary Colby, who, in commenting on the Japanese reply as transmitted in substance by the American Embassy at Tokyo, to the State Department yesterday, declared the action of the Japanese authorities had been "prompt and sincere and undoubtedly will be received with appreciation in this country."

Japanese Officer Suspended.

The American Government was informed that, following a thorough courtmartial investigation of the shooting of Lieut. Langdon, the Japanese commanding officer at Vladivostok, Maj.-Gen. Nishihara, had been removed from active duty and demoted, and that four other officers under his command had been punished, because of improper orders under which the sentry was working. The sentry was held blameless for the shooting, but was sentenced to 30 days' imprisonment for deception in his testimony regarding the circumstances of the tragedy.

The State Department made public a paraphrase of the Japanese Government's reply, based on a cablegram from the American embassy at Tokyo.

List of Japanese Reply.

The paraphrase follows:

"A most thorough and exhaustive examination was conducted by the courtmartial, resulting in the removal from the active list of the Japanese army of Major-General Nishihara, commanding the Japanese garrison at Vladivostok. The courtmartial held that Gen. Nishihara had been guilty of a misinterpretation of the barracks regulations and had thus incurred primary responsibility for the unfortunate incident. He has been deprived of the command of the garrison and of the rank of Brigade Commander, which he previously held. The barracks officer of the rank of Major has been adjudged guilty of responsibility in the matter and sentenced to confinement for 30 days. The assistant barracks officer and a Lieutenant have both been sentenced to similar punishment for a period of 20 days; the company commander sentenced to a less period.

Note From Foreign Minister.

The commander in chief of the Japanese expeditionary force in Vladivostok has paid a visit to the U. S. S. Albany and expressed to the commanding officer of the ship his regret at the occurrence of the incident. The sentry who fired the fatal shot has been held to be excused by the orders and actions of his superiors, upon whom responsibility has been squarely placed and who are to be punished as above stated. The sentry, however, was found guilty of deception in his testimony as to the circumstances of the fatality and for this has been sentenced to confinement for 30 days.

"In addition to the expressions of regret on the part of the commander in chief of the Japanese expeditionary forces, the Minister for Foreign Affairs, in communicating the action of the courtmartial, conveys to the American Government the expression of deep regret on the part of the Japanese Government at the occurrence of this sad and regrettable incident, and expresses the hope that the Government of the United States will fully appreciate the sincere spirit in which the Japanese Government has acted in dealing with this most unfortunate incident."

NEGLECTED COLDS ARE DANGEROUS

Doctors advise that a neglected cold is the source of much serious trouble. Colds should be treated as once, for then it is easy to stop them developing. Just one application of Turpo, the Turpentine Ointment, gets right through the skin and membrane to the source of the trouble and treats the cold right at the very root, giving immediate relief.

Turpo is a scientific combination of distilled Turpentine, Camphor and Menthol; remedies which medical experience shows to be the most effective for the treatment of all kinds of colds and congestion. Turpo is a saline or ointment, clear and pleasant smelling. It does not stain the finest fabric, nor blisters the tenderest skin. When applied it has a soothing, healing effect. It is especially useful for the treatment of children's colds and sore throat. The merits of Turpo are now so well known that over 150,000 jars are sold annually.

Ask your own doctor about Turpo. He will tell you what a useful remedy it is. Your own druggist will give you a guarantee of money back if not entirely satisfactory.

Kansas Mine Strike Ends.
PITTSBURG, Kan., Feb. 23.—
Mines H and J of the George K.
Mackie Fuel Co. are in operation this morning. The mines were idle more than two weeks because of a strike called by President Alexander Howat and the district executive board over a controversy concerning wages alleged to be due Karl Mishmarsh, a former employee. The Kansas Court of Industrial Relations awarded Mishmarsh the amount he claimed. Mishmarsh received his pay

DEMURRER TO INDICTMENTS OF TWO U. R. CONDUCTORS UPHOLD

Contention That Two Men Were Charged With Embezzlement Under Wrong Statute Brings Discharge.

A demurrer to indictments charging Henry C. Jensen of 925 Catalpa street, and Roland D. Souders, 6402 Eitel avenue, former United Railway conductors, with embezzlement growing out of the alleged misappropriation of fares, was sustained today by Circuit Judge Hall on potition of attorneys for the defendants, who contended the men were charged under the general embezzlement statute, and not under a special statute covering embezze-lement by transportation company employees. Both men were discharged.

Jensen and Souders were conductors on the Kirkwood-Ferguson line. Conductors on that line collect fares and register them, the pay-as-you-enter type of car not having been placed in service on that line. They were indicted last summer, Jensen on a charge of taking $101.23 in fares and Souders on a charge of taking $217.49, for which, it was charged, they made no return to the company.

NEW POLICE COMMISSIONERS
GUESTS AT C. OF C. LUNCHEON

Raymond Hitchcock, state commissioner, and the new Board of Police Commissioners were the guests of the Chamber of Commerce at luncheon in Hotel Statler today. Chairman Miller told of the board's intention to enforce prohibition and advised those who abhor the law not to ensure the board, but to seek to change the law. He added that he did not think that any of the board had voted for prohibition.

Hitchcock's talk was similar to the monologue with which he opens his revue now playing at the local theater except that he omitted the funny spots of the theater appearance. His subject was announced as "The Funny Side of Business." He chose to warn against blue laws instead in a serious talk, and advised the Chamber of Commerce to post a man at Jefferson City to keep its members informed upon what bills were being introduced, who introduced them and for what purpose.

Leonard Brings His Own Referee, "Slim" Brennan

Club Promoters, However, Insist Heiner, Not Philadelphia, Officiate Tomorrow.

BOTH MEN IN GOOD SHAPE

Champion Suffered No Marks of Battle in Contest Against Moy at Dayton.

By John E. Wray.

With Lightweight Champion Benny Leonard and his principal rival, Joe E. Wray, both on the battle-ground, in good condition for their bout at the Coliseum, tomorrow night, the Fight City Club promoters were a little more than satisfied with the results of the fight.

Leonard arrived with his retainers late yesterday afternoon, in time to get a little workout at handball. He showed no marks of his encounter with Moy, at Dayton, and seemed in fine condition.

The men are engaged to meet at catch weights, which will permit them to fight at about 140 pounds. Neither man was willing to do the 135 pounds at 3 o'clock in a contest where no decision was at stake. Both boys can make the figure; they did for their bout at Madison Square Garden, but it spells hard work for both. Constant training down and then expanding afterwards, is considered best for the boxer's constitution and all fighters, whenever they can, avoid this practice. Only champions and near-champions can stand upon such weights.

Only Light Work Permitted.

Leonard's party includes Manager Billy Gibson, Mennie Seamon, trainer, and Referee Brennan, of Philadelphia.

Brennan is the official who handled the Moy-Leonard affair at Dayton, and it was said after the fight that he would be asked to officiate at St. Louis also.

Gibson could not be reached this morning to verify this statement, but Leo Heyman, of the Future City A. C. club, who is a close friend of Walter Heiner, the club's referee, positively would be third man in the ring.

"After the articles had been signed," Heyman continued, "Gibson wrote that not knowing the capabilities of the various referees about the country, he would have to bring his own with him on trips, in justice to Leonard, L. Heiner, and Jimmy Bronson and others in the East who are familiar with Heiner, explain to Gibson that Walter was a high class man and I understand Gibson thought it was all right."

"We will have an understanding about the matter today and settle the argument. It will be settled in favor of Heiner."

Dayton critics without exception took a fall out of the Leonard-Moy fight because of the insistence of Leonard and his manager that Brennan referee and because of the incidents connected with it. The fact is that Moy is not able to stand before a man of Leonard's class more than a round or two under any conditions.

Welling arrived early yesterday morning from Hot Springs and worked out lightly. His sparring partner, Ed May, accompanied him and his manager is expected today.

Neither fighter will undertake more than light work today or tomorrow.

Leonard's hotel was besieged by local friends today. Benny made a wonderful impression here on the occasion of his previous visit five years ago, when he fought that tough nut, Harvey Thorpe, and extinguished him in the twelfth round. That was in the days when longer bouts were permitted in this city, which for a time became a parking place for some first-class boxers.

Welling will be making his first appearance here. If he fights according to descriptions of his previous bout with Leonard he will surely win with the approval of local supporters of the game.

The men will be paid more than was ever invested in one bout in this city, and it will take a record gate to get the promoters out from under.

SEVEN LOCAL PLAYERS SIGNED BY MUSKOGEE

Bob Wallace, former major league star, who will re-assert the national batline the coming season as manager of the Muskogee club of the Southwestern League, has signed seven local players for tryouts, he announced yesterday.

The tenners are: W. Elmer, pitcher; Frank Sullivan and Fred Weiss, infielders; J. Bonifer and N. Bates, catchers; G. Brantley and G. A. Brink, outfielders. In addition, Wallace has signed Leslie Hollister of Terrell, a catcher, and a shortstop, and a pitcher, from Alton.

Cubs Sign Pitcher Wray. CHICAGO, Feb. 22.—James Wray, a left-handed pitcher, who claims to be a relative of Bert Wray, World War hero, yesterday signed a contract with the Chicago National League club.

Survey of Playing Fields Is Suggested by Brooklyn Man

Umpire Evans Thinks There Is Real Merit in Idea to Have Civil Engineer Inspect All Major League Parks to Make Them Uniform.

By Billy Evans,

Premier American League Umpire.

RECENTLY read a suggestion by one of the owners of the Brooklyn National League Club that a civil engineer be hired to inspect all major league parks, so that conditions would be uniform.

It seems the suggestion resulted from observations made by the Brooklyn owner at the world series games in Cleveland. While no claim was made that the game was played on a level field, it was pointed out that it made a slight difference in the distance from here to third and home to first.

There have been hundreds of games at the Cleveland park, and in some cases a condition does not exist. I regard the Cleveland field as one of the best kept ball parks. However, I feel there is merit in the suggestion that a civil engineer be appointed to survey all the parks so that all will be uniform. Such an engineer would probably find many conditions that he would recommend be changed.

No Tampering with Base Lines. One feature that should be ruled against is tampering with base lines. The base line is a line that runs from a certain point to a certain point, and it is a line that is not to be tampered with. A fine base runner, but only an ordinary fielder, who is weak on hand, may take advantage of the base line by hitting and speed, the manager sets out to do something that will help the runner.

Perhaps the easiest and most effective method is to alter the grade of the third base line. Instead of having it straight, it is a slight curve. The opposition, knowing of his weakness on bunted balls, always tries to take advantage of that. The manager sets out to do something that will help the runner.

Batting of Todt Features Browns' Opening Workout

St. Louis Youth Pounds Two Balls Over Fence Against Straight Ball Pitching.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

St. Louis, Feb. 23.—All work and no play makes a ball tosser a very dull individual. At least that is the way Lee Todt of the Browns sizes up the matter. The new leader of the St. Louis American League team yesterday inaugurated a system vastly different from that of any manager who has ever handled the Browns, and that means from the time the American League invaded St. Louis back in 1902, when Jimmy McAleer was in charge, up to and including last spring, when the squad trained at Taylor, Tex.

While Todt believes in play in the morning and conditioning in the afternoon, he is conditioning his men, he goes about it in such a way as to cause the players all to become greatly interested in his scheme and by putting this method into operation he gets real "work" out of his men.

When the squad of 24 players arrived at the ball park yesterday morning Todt issued orders for his men to start a game of "rounders" with three men taking their turns as batters and the remainder of the squad in the field. The Browns, both veterans and recruits, had the time of their lives. The game of "rounders" was continued from 11 o'clock until 12:20, when a halt was called to allow the players to eat a sandwich.

LANDIS EVENTUALLY TO GIVE BASEBALL ALL HIS TIME, HEYDLEER THINKS

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—Expressing the belief that "in due time" Judge Landis will devote all of his talent and energy exclusively to baseball, John A. Heydler, president of the National League, issued a statement here last night criticizing the men who seek his impeachment.

Judge Landis' decision to remain on the bench, he said, was that of the Judge himself and not by request of the baseball people.

Gee Lee Pleases Fans, Loses Bout

Chinese Boxer, Stopped in Ninth Round, Applauded as He Leaves New York Ring.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—That clout-ting California Celestial George Lee could not stand up under the thumps handed out by Midge Smith in Madison Square Garden last night, he will be remembered in the city yesterday morning after a victorious campaign in the East.

Murchison worked out yesterday afternoon at the First Regiment Armory, and will do so today and Friday. He will be in the city tomorrow night for the first time since he left for Chicago, where he will again meet Jackson V. Scholz, the star of St. Louis, who has gained an international reputation in the dachau.

The Chicago games will mark Murchison's final competition until March 19, when he will enter the National A. A. U. indoor games to be held in New York. He will depart for the metropolis a week before the races in order to work out before the track. These games close the 1921 indoor season, and the former McKinley youth will then start preparation for the outdoor campaign.

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Sage Tea and Sulphur Turns Gray, Faded Hair Dark and Glossy.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at very little cost. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.

Meat
—then and now

THE meat peddler of the old days, who killed his own live stock and then sold the meat from the tail of a cart, is gone from our larger towns and cities. He was a pioneer and did good service but he couldn't keep up with his job. Crude methods had to give way to new ideas in sanitation and distribution.

Concentration of population drove the peddler and his wagon out and brought the modern packing industry and the neighborhood retailer in his place.

And the modern packing business means this:

That near the farms and ranches, the centers of live stock production, are packing plants that assemble and manufacture the meat products you use.

That swift and sanitary refrigerator cars carry your meat from these packing plants to every part of the country.

Dealers in towns and villages are supplied directly and regularly from these refrigerator cars.

And in cities the refrigerator car is unloaded into branch houses, chilled and sanitary, from which deliveries are made to your meat shop. And all the time the meat is kept so chilled that deterioration is prevented.

Swift & Company's plants and branches are co-ordinated, interchanging supply and supporting each other, when necessary, so that no section of the country may ever lack its daily meat.

I know that my retirement will make no difference in the cardinal principles, that it will always fight for progress and reform, never tolerate injustice or corruption, always fight for the public welfare, never be satisfied with merely printing news, always be drastically independent; never be afraid to attack wrong, whether by predatory plutocracy or predatory poverty.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

They Did the Job.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
I believe it is a pretty widespread belief that men holding "city jobs" are a sort of idlers. I confess this has been my own impression. But if I could allow me a little space I would like to rectify a simple incident revealing another side of the shield.

A group of North End citizens recently had occasion to reconstruct a private sewer. They worked at it to the best of their ability about two months. It was a trying and difficult job, and they were delighted when it merged itself into situation where the city might properly take it off their hands.

Then along came a city foreman named Richard Callahan with seven or eight men; an Irishman or two, a couple of Italians and a few Syrians. He also brought a little dog house with a red lantern hanging at one end and settled down to work.

For the rest, the putting over of that job was a sight which heartened everybody who came along. There was no excitement, no bustle, no typical "bossing." The foreman knew his men thoroughly. They all worked. In a very short time a big job was done, and I believe it was done thoroughly.

I don't relate this as an exciting fact, but simply as something creditable. It has no relation to a third term, nor a boost for anybody. It was something that made me feel a little prouder of my citizenship—and so I am passing it along.
L. D.

Kiel-on-His-Record Club.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
It is with considerable enjoyment that people in the "Kiel-on-His-Record Club" read the notices given to the newspapers stating that no one connected with the Mayor and no one connected with the Mayor would have anything to do with the club's affairs. The head of the club is "Big" Clinton Fisk. Now "Big" Fisk was a former city employee, under Kiel, and more important, is a brother-in-law of Nelson Cuniff, who is expected to be the next Director of Public Welfare. If Kiel is elected, is it not probable that the real man behind the Kiel-on-His-Record Club is brother-in-law Nelson Cuniff and not "Big" Fisk?
G. M. K.

Politics and Religion.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
The political activities of a number of colored ministers of this city are regrettable. Many colored men and women with whom the writer has talked have deplored this attitude of their clergy. What is to be done about it? The writer believes that the advice, "The pen is mightier than the sword," might be brought out in an appeal through the press to the colored ministers to lay aside politics and devote their energies to their great and sacred calling.

A great deal has been said about keeping the members of the School Board out of politics for fear of corruption. Are the members of the School Board and the schools to be held more sacred than the ministers and their churches?

The congregations of the church over which those politically inclined ministers preside demand a reckoning and, if not properly considered, demand their resignations. For those political activities are inimical to, and striking at, the very morals and foundation of your Christian society. Has the fact of those ministers causing the school scandal of not quite a year ago been forgotten?

Very recently the doors of a prominent colored minister's church in this city were thrown open to a political gathering of colored men, originated by a few white politicians, who are told, who would not dare present themselves at the portals of a white sanctuary for such an occasion. The writer is further informed that the pastor got into the political fray of the evening. Unless certain political transactions are kept shrouded in secrecy another scandalous upheaval may be imminent.

Be more respectful of your ministerial eminence and beware of too much dabbling in politics. Your station is a lofty one and you should respect it as such. Temptations are great and you will be caught in the coils if you continue to mix politics and religion.
JESSE J. CROW.

Oppose Big Families.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
I would like to say a few words about the article advocating large families. It sounds well on paper. The author admits the poor are the ones that have large families. How are the poor going to raise large families and provide and educate their property? Why do so many poor children have tuberculosis? Who furnishes the inmates of hospitals, orphan houses, jails, etc.? Take a walk through Union Market and see the children eating garbage off the streets and out of cans. What causes all of that? Large families—poor people. How many children can be properly raised to make good citizens on the pay of a laborer? The greatest book I ever read was a book on birth control and if more people would read that book there would be less suffering among the poor.

MR. HARDING'S "BEST MINDS."

In announcing his selection of Harry M. Daugherty as Attorney-General, Mr. Harding says that the opposition to his appointment "merely strengthened my conviction that I want him."

What is the opposition which has strengthened the President-elect's conviction? Upon what is it based? Every newspaper, Democratic or Republican, which has criticized the selection of Mr. Daugherty has based its criticism upon the question of his fitness. There has been no personal animosity or merely partisan prejudice in the opposition. The discussion has been directed to the record of the man in politics and law. The record shows that he is not and never has been conspicuous for his learning or ability as a lawyer, but for his shrewdness and unscrupulousness in practical politics and for using personal and political influence for the benefit of clients and for personal gain. Conceding that Mr. Daugherty has been the maker of Senator Harding's fortunes in politics and his ablest and most valuable political henchman, Mr. Harding has been warned that by appointing Mr. Daugherty he will sacrifice public interest to personal ambition.

Surely it is not the evidence of Mr. Daugherty's unfitness to hold the great power of the Attorney-General's office that has strengthened Mr. Harding's conviction that he wants him. It is merely the emphasizing of his personal and political obligation, which he is willing to pay at any sacrifice to public interest. If this is the case, Mr. Harding demonstrates his willingness in the beginning of his administration to pay personal and political obligations in the coin of the people—he is willing to jeopardize the public interest to take care of his friends. The example is not salutary, particularly to his new Attorney-General, whose conscience in this respect has not been the controlling guide in his conduct.

With Mr. Daugherty in the attorney-generalship and Mr. Mellon at the head of the Treasury, the powers of law and finance will be linked up with powerful corporate interests—not a reassuring sign for the plain people who voted in droves for Mr. Harding.

The selection of Judge Hughes as Secretary of State, with the Senate sitting on the safety valve, and tentatively of Herbert Hoover in the comparatively unimportant post of Secretary of Commerce are, in view of the personal and political selections for places of power, light sops to public sentiment.

Mr. Harding's Cabinet of "best minds" has dwindled in the aggregate to a mixed group, with party standpatters and personal favorites in the ascendancy.

The Cabinet has the one merit Mr. Harding claims for it—it is Republican.

THE BASEBALL ARBITER'S JOB.

Judge Landis, who is being paid a King's ransom annually for acting as baseball's supreme dictator—to say nothing of the lamppost tossed in by irate Congressmen—has just rendered a decision which, under almost any other circumstances, might have elected him Mayor of St. Louis on the Democratic ticket. He has awarded a player named Todd to the Browns, notwithstanding another club deposed and ejaculated that it had a lien on the selfsame Todd.

What other club had the effrontery to file such a preposterous claim? Well, there's the rub. That other club is our own immaculate Cardinals, an organization which in point of sportsmanship and honorable purpose is equaled only by the Browns. When those two clubs, looking upon the same innocent Slater or predestined Hornsby, exclaim, "Todd is ours," the burden of deciding which is correct and which is mistaken is indeed grievous.

As regards the judgment in this case celebre, we do not say that Judge Landis is right, and, with equal prudence, we refrain from saying he is wrong. But if Judge Landis is getting a movie star's salary for acting as baseball's arbitrator, we affirm here and now that the perilous job is worth it.

LENIENCY TO BELGIUM.

If Congress agrees to accept German bonds in discharge of Belgium's war debt of $171,750,000, in accordance with the late recommendation of the President, it will not, of course, be driving a good bargain or standing upon its allowable claims. It will be extending a favor which may mean the ultimate sacrifice of hard cash. The question for Congress to consider is whether it desires to commit the nation to an act of philanthropy.

There are several considerations why the President's recommendation should be regarded with favor. The Premier of Great Britain and France agreed to make similar recommendations to their respective legislative bodies covering Belgian obligations. And to each of these two Governments the Belgian debt applying to the same period is $100,000,000. It remains to be seen, of course, how Parliament and the Deputies receive the recommendation of their Premiers. But even were they to reject it there would be more imperative reasons for doing so in their cases than there would be in ours.

Belgium is entitled to leniency from the United States by reason of the following considerations: By selling out to Germany she could have secured immunity from punishment by the Von Kinnick armies and thus could have preserved property and life that never can be restored. By retarding the German advance she gave France the time necessary to save herself from quick capitulation. In fighting the battle of France, moreover, Belgium fought the battle of the allies and the United States. She sacrificed everything to honor and independence.

At a time when the complete cancellation of the huge debts of the larger allied Powers to the United States is being agitated, the acceptance of German paper at face value from Belgium would not be a radical measure. It is an open question how far the United States can insist on the payment of any of her European credits with profit to herself. It would be a sorry thing for America if European civilization, under the weight of a ruinous economic burden, should fall.

THE FORCES AGAINST HOME RULE.

The power to appoint a St. Louis Police Board is a delectable piece of patronage which the present Republican Governor of Missouri, like his Democratic predecessor, is loath to surrender. Rural Missouri is so prejudiced against St. Louis that it opposes anything the city wants. Those are the two obstacles to home rule for this city.

In the opinion of rural Missouri the people of St. Louis are not capable of self-government. Accordingly, control of our police department is denied us. Demagogues and professional lobbyists of saintly cast gleefully cater to rural prejudice. They find it easy to convince rural legislators that St. Louis would be a dreadful place if the people here were permitted to conduct their own affairs. Therefore, home-rule bills, such as the Razovsky measure, are beaten as regularly as they are presented.

The rural legislators, apparently, have never discerned the speciousness of such fulminations. They have never asked a demagogue, for example, to explain just how he happens to know that the people of St. Louis cannot be trusted to manage their police department. The rural legislators know that the people of St. Louis have not had a chance to demonstrate their capacity or incapacity for self-government since the St. Louis Police Department has been run from Jefferson City. Such absentee government has not been much of a success. Would the people of St. Louis make a worse job of managing their own police department than have the Governors at the capital? The demagogues pandering for the country vote and the high-salaried moral lobbyists say so, but they don't know.

Eventually, rural Missouri will realize that the more St. Louis grows and prospers the better it will be for rural Missouri. Eventually, country legislators will see that the bigger St. Louis is the better market it will be for Missouri farmers. Eventually, the present antagonism between country and city will be supplanted by the community of interest which genuinely exists between them. When finally he perceives these latent facts the country legislator, for selfish considerations if for no other, will smash the boundaries which now confine St. Louis as within an iron ring and will give St. Louis a square deal.

A speaking motion picture has been invented. Now let's see if the movies, after all, will have anything to say.

THE CITY'S BUSINESS.

In selecting a candidate for the mayoralty campaign the Democrats put forward an innovation in the person of a business man who is refreshingly independent in his record and attitude. James W. Byrnes, in accepting the tender of support from the local Democratic organization, made it clear that his candidacy would be nonpartisan and that he would give the city "a business administration, free from politics." He repudiated any obligation to serve the party machine in the event of his election. While a Democrat in principle, he admits he voted for Harding and has been independent in practice.

Now, if Mr. Byrnes will add to his independence and his pledge of "a business administration, free from politics," a constructive program with regard to the big, vital problems that confront St. Louis, he will contribute valuable public service, whether he wins or loses. The attention of the people of St. Louis ought to be taken from all political considerations in municipal elections and centered upon efficient business management of the municipality, regardless of partisan politics and party machines.

A first-class business administration, addressed to sound economy, efficiency, improvement of the rundown city plant and achievement for future growth and future health, economy, comfort and convenience of the people would be a boon to St. Louis. The use of the bridge, better street railway transportation, rapid transit, street improvements, modern lighting—the practical necessities that make for the city's growth, and the profitable activities and happiness of the people—offer a field of achievements of incalculable benefit to St. Louis, for a man of capacity and energy who would make the public interest paramount, who, as Col. Burkham aptly put it, would give the people "a dollar's worth for every dollar spent."

Politics and public service do not mix in municipal government—the blend is a failure.

Of course, if one were to seek advice concerning the menace of England to America, one could go to more disinterested quarters than Von Tirpitz.

HIS CONTRIBUTION TO RECONSTRUCTION.

No so with the hypocritical prohibitionists' panacea for all ills—those pro-bono-publico of our legislative halls. Leave it to them to put before the voter what is good for the body politic; leave it to them to admit that their nefarious law has its imperfections and that it will work out its own salvation!

Imagine the prohibitionists raising a fund of $1,000,000 to conduct a referendum election to submit their law to the voters BECAUSE THEY KNOW THEIR CAUSE IS JUST! Where is the prohibitionist that does not bear malice toward a drunkard?

In the prohibition law "working out its own salvation" Not by some $100,000,000 worth annually. And we poor innocent dubs who are not interested in the enforcement of the prohibition law (as it stands in its so-called inalterable state—though we have Webster to the contrary) are contributing our money along with the pro's who have fostered this wonderful "experiment" on all our pocketbooks.

STRAY THOUGHTS.

If censorship will tend to eliminate the villain from the films, the hero will find himself without a job—but the vamp will have all ways with us.

That other sahara has something on ours—it has oases.

Sam Elliot of Boston tells us that the Puritans were merely vulgar, ignorant, uneducated men. Now we see.

Someone (we apologize to him for having forgotten his name) has said that dancing is an instinct like eating. He may be right. But after comparing dimensions of that part of the anatomy that dances by instinct with the business end of that other instinct, we have come to the conclusion that with some the instinct for eating is more developed.

Sinclair Lewis "Main Street," plus our rank in education among nations. Total: Two indictments.

How unequal is the law. It will send a man to prison for mashing raisins and a man for mashing a peach will get off with a paltry fine of a few dollars.

Sir, Fresh in mind are two momentous bits of history: the prohibition law that was put over on us and the League of Nations that was put up to us.

Obliged to accept the former on account our having a very indirect voice in the matter, we had the latter served up to us in spirit if not in substance in the last election for our approval or rejection and everybody knows what happened.

Among many of the points made by the champions of the league was its imperfections susceptible in its application to alterations, corrections, additions, etc. "God bless their candor!" "Only give it a trial," said they. "It will work out its own salvation." Its aim is so lofty that its means should be inconsequential. It fell by the wayside, many thinking there was a bigger in the woodpile. It died the death.

No so with the hypocritical prohibitionists' panacea for all ills—those pro-bono-publico of our legislative halls. The MIRROR of PUBLIC OPINION

This column is designed to reproduce without bias the latest comment by the leading publicists, newspapers and periodicals on the questions of the day.

THE NEW STATE PROJECT.

THESE are reasonable interest in the radical plan to create a new State of Lincoln in the Northwest, even though, to judge the future by the past, little is likely to come of it. Citizens of Idaho panhandle are at Boise with a proposal to urge upon the Legislature for accomplishing the object by the uniting of the 10 Idaho counties north of the Salmon River with the portion of the State of Washington east of the Cascade Mountains. Spokane would be the principal city and presumably the capital of the new State. On the way down the delegates made a neighborly visit to Spokane and won the unofficial endorsement of their plan by all of the members of the Chamber of Commerce who could be got together at short notice, and their promise to take the matter up for further study. The campaign reflects conditions that are similar in the two States. Both are divided by difficult mountain ranges, and the regions where the secession movement has originated are much more closely related geographically to each other than to the other parts of their own States. And geography and politics are apt to be pretty closely related. It may be guessed, on the other hand, that Southern Idaho and Western Washington will not be enthusiastic for the plan. Idaho would hardly be willing to lose its fertile agricultural lands, which are virtually confined to the panhandle, and the proposed secession would leave the State of Washington, reduced by nearly half in area, rather small as western States go.

BRITISH POLITICAL REFORM.

PROF. HAROLD L. LASKI in the Nation.
THE old liberalism is dead. In any creative sense, to live again it must be reborn in terms of a new philosophy. It must be reborn in terms of a new philosophy. It must be reborn in terms of a new philosophy. It must be reborn in terms of a new philosophy.

For I, ex-ante, these men know not a BLESSING when they have received it. And all this "man-made" exceeding wearisome!

Verily, verily, the Woman's Club is a boon straight from heaven, for the salvation of woman and the comfort of man.

For lo, it hath taken the place of all those things which were the cure of wives, and hath supplanted all those things which were the "Bible" of husbands!

Yes, it hath taken the place of world breeding and interbreeding and has made a new world of things, and has made a new world of things, and has made a new world of things, and has made a new world of things.

Of tango teas and lounge hours and cheap flirtations.

Of yellow novels and brainstorms and back-porch gossip.

Of hand-painted plaques, and knitted neckties, and amateur music and bridge-a-mania, and shopping sprees, and candy-jags.

Behold, if MEN'S CLUBS were as diverting as women's clubs the past to Reno and Genoa would be a place crowded, and the straight and narrow way, more popular.

Then, cease from your complaint, O ye foolish ones!

Lo, when women were as petulant babes, ye sighed for a soul-companion, but now that they have become human beings, ye sigh for a plaything.

Go to, go to! Ye know not what ye are LUCKY!

MORE TRUTH THAN POETRY

By James J. Montague.

ALL FOR THE LOVE OF THE LADIES.

At last we have fathomed the reason
Why none of the popular schools
Have adopted a course in the Ethics of Force
Of the Marquis of Queensberry Rules.
For what could an underdog profit,
By counter or wallop or swing,
Or a trip-hammer punch to another chap's lunch
If his girl didn't sit by the ring?

The glory that followed a knockout,
The smashes that went to the jaws,
No flutter could start in a feminine heart
Or waken sweet oes of applause;
And only cut lips and contusions
The boxers received for their pains,
When collegiate sport of the red-blooded sort
Was marked by the absence of Jansie.

The ring had small favor in college
When fashion on fistcuffs frowned,
It wasn't much fun for the fellow who won
Without any ladies around.
And many a future Jack Dempsey,
His talent at bruising concealed,
And went after fame in the sliest game,
That is played on the gridiron field.

But now that it's shown that a prize fight
A social occasion can be,
And popular pug exchange haymaker slugs
At many an afternoon tea,
The mills at the schools are attended
By all the society vamps,
And the gym's full of chaps with blue dents on their maps
Who are studying hard to be champs.

OVERWHELMING HOSPITALITY.
If the mountains of California are really moving north, as is reported,
It is doubtless from a desire to make the lowen population of Southern California feel more at home.

NOR EVEN A FOLLOWER.

leader at hard labor in Sing Sing.

"Do you find the movies educa-

"Not any more," said the con-

"How is that?"
"I believe I have mastered all the doesn't seem to be anything else to learn."

In New York.

"Are you meeting many people in New York society?"
"Oh, yes."
"Making a lot of friends, I suppose?"
"No, so far I've been cautioned to have nothing to do with most of the people I've met."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

The Latest Entertainment.

"Are you going to entertain any

While the Cabinet slate is re-

Detailed plans have not yet departments and bureaus, and expects to exist in the work-organization some of the abministrators he can find. He derstood to have told some advisers that he regards the manipulation of the reorganiza-
